Committee Reports

- Alertify: Jackie Lawson/Michele Milgrim – no report.
- Uniforms: Stacie Kremper – All color guard reports have been cleaned and hung up back in their bags. Trapped/Newsies/Reflections have been packed up in a tub. In Jan or Feb, we are going to get some "models" we are going to try to sell them again. We don't have storage for them. There was a request for another school that may be considering old band uniforms, but we are just at the information stage.
- Color Guard: Michele Milgrim – on break until January.
- Ways and Means: Robyn Murray – Hannaford Book Fair - $529.23 – next year more books are needed. Can Shake - $3,825 had approximately 75 students help. Food Drive – 1,200 items were donated for the "Jam the Van" event at ShopRite to benefit the Food Bank of the Hudson Valley. Five students showed up to help load the food (Colin Bentley, Anna Detweiler, Colin Murray, Matthew Haynor and Saul Ortiz). Wreaths - $1,119. Play Concession - $405. Citrus – 409 cases sold, $2,622 for student's accounts. B&N – won't have totals until sometime in January, as there was a mix up with commission between the band and the choir. Our best guess is approximately $185. Upcoming Events – Coffee & Fudge Sale in January with delivery in time for Valentine's Day.
- Merchandising: Nancy Nissen/Audrey Kenyon – no report.
- Equipment: Matt Van Aken – no report.
- Yearbook: Denise Breithaupt – no report.
