Article VIII: Terms of Office

The Executive Board will be introduced at the conclusion of voting and as presented will serve a one-year term beginning with the June meeting. The President-Elect will serve one term, followed by one term as President, and is restricted to one term in each role. The Vice President-Elect will serve one term, followed by one term as Vice President, and is restricted to one term in each role. The Recording/Corresponding Secretary shall be one term, and is limited to two consecutive terms. The Treasurer-Elect will serve one term, followed by one term as Treasurer, and is restricted to one term in each role. If no volunteer is available, then a volunteer in these positions shall be able to continue additional terms by a vote of the regular membership.

Deleted: The Executive Board will be introduced at the conclusion of voting and will serve a one-year term beginning with the June meeting. To promote and grow active membership, it is desirable to limit executive positions to two consecutive terms. However, if no volunteer is available, then an executive may continue to serve additional terms. The President and Vice President terms shall be one 2-year term. The President and one Vice President term shall be staggered against the other Vice President position to insure stability at the senior level. These positions shall be restricted to one term. Again, if no volunteer is available then a volunteer in these positions shall be able to continue additional terms.
